

Tap Out Rhythms

(Early Childhood Listening Skills' Activity)

Shared By: Linda Mason

Use a pencil or coin to tap out a short, simple rhythm on the table. Ask the children to tap out the same pattern. This helps train children to listen carefully and to remember what they heard. These skills are necessary for learning the phonics and sounding patterns of reading.